Nightingale swoops on champion of champions

BY HELEN DECOSTA AND ALEXANDRA BERNARD

A UNANIMOUS decision from judges placed one of Annette Barham and Murray Sowter's first home-bred females centre stage at the 2024 Royal Canberra Show.

Lynbrook Nightingale S3, a three-year-old black Limousin cow, claimed champion of champions female against a field of 15, before taking out the overall title.

Judge Tim Lord, Kangaloon, along with fellow judges Hannah Powe, Goondoola Livestock, Cargo, and Steve Crowley, Tylolah Poll Herefords, Barnaba, said the cow displayed natural balance with a good wedge shape, square hip and tight udder.

"She is the sort of female that will last a long time," he said.

Mr Lord said the cow had a lovely neck extension, with a lot of shape in her hindquarter.

Nightingale S3's owners haven't been breeding Limousins for long, but that did little to dampen the Moss Vale couple's excitement in securing the win.

"This is our first really big win so it's great," Ms Barham said.

"Murray purchased the Birubi property at Wagga Wagga. We bought three stud heifers at the dispersal and that was how we started the stud Limousins.

"She's actually a daughter of one of the foundation heifers."

Champion bull

In a field of 13, it was a Poll Hereford bull that rose to the top spot on the podium.

Granite Hill Toro, exhibited by Daniel Hill, Bungendore, claimed the ribbon out of the top three over the Angus bull, Hollywood 'Top O' The Morning T12, exhibited by Hollywood Angus, Peak Hill, and the Limousin bull, Kyanne Sir Jack, exhibited by Kyanne Limousins, Cowra.

The 18-month-old bull, sired by the $160,000 Injima Robert Redford Q287 and out of Kerison Pines Annie L1, was described by judge Hannah Powe as "a really nice, free-moving bull".

"When you get your hand on him he has nice supple skin," she said.

Mr Hill said it was a "pretty special win".

He said he had plenty of wins with Angus before, but bought a few Herefords to take to the National Hereford Show and Sale, which was where the bull was headed.

"He is a great bull and very sound," he said.

Champion junior pair

The junior champions from seven breeds went head-to-head for champion junior pair, with a Limousin pair coming out on top.

The winning Limousin pair consisted of 18-month-old black heifer Warrigal Krystal T18, exhibited by Barham and Sowter, Moss Vale, and 17-month-old apricot bull, Kia Ora Thaddeus, exhibited by Anne Hutchings, Laggan.

Champion breeder's group

Summit Livestock, Urquinty, won champions of champions breeder's group in a field of five breeds.

The trio consisted of 12-month-old apricot bull, Summit Cocker U321, 18-month-old apricot heifer, Summit Tempress T39, and five-year-old cow, Summit Ready Made Q61.

Peter Frater, Shannon Lawlor, Steve Crowley, Hannah Powe, Kieran Martin, Danny Hill, and Tim Lord.
